The NACA 100 Level II Training Academy

National Animal Control Association

The National Animal Control Association (NACA) was formed in 1978 for the express purpose of assisting its members to perform their duties in a professional manner. NACA believes its most important contribution towards solving our domestic animal problems is to make available to Animal Control agencies and personnel a comprehensive training program.

Who Should Attend

This program is designed for Animal Control Officers at the federal, state, and local levels, Police Officers, and Sheriff's Deputies responsible for animal control and all of its many facets. In addition, those people interested in a career in the animal control/care field are welcome to attend. No previous animal control experience is required. It is not necessary to attend Level I before Level II.

Topics to be Covered Include:

Search and Seizure
Methamphetamine Identification and
Animal Decontamination
Animal Cruelty Investigations
Handling of Exotic, Wildlife and Agricultural Animals
Crime Scene Photography
Officer Safety/Defensive Tactics
Blood Sports
Stress Management/Compassion Fatigue
Public Speaking
Media Relations
